

TIMELESS ENTERTAINMENT

We Have A Passion

for helping people find joy and connection through fun, free, classic games that are always there when you need them. It's why we exist. We're your loyal friend who's always there when you have some unexpected downtime or need to escape.

Origin Story

In 2007, bored at his desk job and craving some intellectual stimulation, John Battagline, our founder and CEO, decided to develop an online game for him and his co-workers to play. Inspired by the bond created when playing cards with his grandmother, John developed an online version of Solitaire, a classic game he knew would be a hit. From there, 24/7 Games was born.

Leveling Up

In 2010, 24/7 Games got promoted from "side hustle" to a full-blown online games company. With an expanded team of expert designers, coders and genuinely good humans, we've spent over a decade making classic online games available to the masses.

We've enabled countless cross-country games of Checkers between grandparents and their grandchildren, thousands of spirited Chess games between friends during short bursts of downtime, and provided hours of entertainment with solo skills games like Sudoku and Solitaire, to help sharpen the cognitive skills of the young, elderly and persons with disabilities. It doesn't matter what tech you have, whether it's a phone, tablet, laptop, or desktop computer — our games are there for you.

We're your old, reliable friend who's always ready to play, 24/7.
